Fall Term Opens Sept. 7

Bryan will begin its 29th academic year with a convocation on Sunday afternoon, September 7, at 3:00 p.m. when Leon Sullivan, Philadelphia investment banker and well-known Christian layman, will give the address. The fall faculty retreat is scheduled for September 4-6.

Bible Conference Speakers

Speakers for the annual fall Bible conference, October 19-26, will be Dr. Edward John Carnell, president of Fuller Theological Seminary, and the Rev. Edgerton Reid ’37 of Cincinnati, Ohio, director of the Ohio Messianic Testimony. Music for the conference week will be under the direction of Homer Hammontree and Paul Beckwith, well-known musical team, who have appeared on the Bryan Bible conference platform in previous years.

FACULTY COMPLETED

At Bryan he will be teaching the courses which during this past year have been taught by Dr. Clifford Nixon. With the Tennessee State approval of Bryan as a teacher training institution having been received, Dr. Nixon will be transferring all his activities to the department of education and psychology.

Boyce in History and Physical Ed.

Assisting Mr. Moore in the department of history will be Everett Boyce, a Bryan graduate of the class of '56, who will also serve as athletic director and instructor in physical education, replacing James S. Quinn. Mr. Boyce is a candidate for the master's degree in history at the University of Tennessee. His teaching experience includes a year and a half at Lee High School at Chattanooga, Ga., where he also served as track coach and assistant coach of football. Mrs. Boyce, the former Faith Sandford, has also attended Bryan. The Boyces have two children, Mary Elizabeth and Bryan Sandford.

Black in Music

Miss Donna Jean Black of Englewood, Colo., a former Bryan student, joins the faculty as instructor in music. She holds her B.A. degree from Colorado State College at Greeley and is currently enrolled in a graduate program at the University of Indiana. Miss Black will teach piano, organ, and theory.

Mrs. Van Meeveren, Librarian

Rebecca Harrison Van Meeveren, wife of Professor Arthur Van Meeveren, has been appointed as head librarian to replace Robert Marston who resigned last year. (Mr. Marston has joined the staff of the Glenview, Ill., public library.) Mrs. Van Meeveren holds her professional library science degree from George Peabody College. Robert Patterson of New York city has joined the staff in the capacity of assistant librarian. Mr. Patterson, who is also a biologist, holds a master's degree from Teachers College, Columbia University, and has served on the library staff of City College in New York. On leave for further study—Harold Franz (philosophy) at Harvard and Mary L. Hammack (education), Oregon.

Huston Places 2nd In Contest

Frank Huston, Talcott, W. V., a freshman and vice president of his class, won second place in the state oratorical contest on “Alcoholism and Related Problems” held in Nashville recently. Huston was top winner at Bryan among six finalists who competed in April. The original orations were based on research by the students and dealt with some phase of the alcohol problem.

Other winners at Bryan were Alan Winkler '60, Sale Creek, Tenn., second place; and Rachael O'Mera '58, Knapp, Wis. third place. Prizes for the campus contest were $15, $10, and $5 for first, second, and third places respectively. In addition to his expenses, Huston received a prize of $25 for winning second place in the state competition. The Bryan finalists were selected from among some forty contestants from the speech classes. The state-wide contest for colleges was sponsored by the Tennessee WCTU.
